

Would you wear it?

Racism is as hurtful and offensive as homophobia.

Excluding people or making jokes, assumptions and negative comments based on race may make some people feel superior - but it's racism!

Challenge our own and other people's ideas about race. Let's work towards a community where everyone is accepted & respected.

Report racism and get more information on how you can make a difference at www.acon.org.au/racism